Policy Statement

The vision of Skate Canada is to inspire everyone to experience the joy of skating. In pursuit of that objective, Skate Canada places the highest priority on ensuring there is a safe, accessible, welcoming, inclusive, and respectful environment for everyone, striving to ensure equity and encourage diversity. It is Skate Canada’s goal and commitment to be a leading Safe Sport organization in Canada and internationally that treats individuals with respect, integrity, dignity, and fairness in alignment with our core values, whereby everyone is entitled to feel and know they are safe, and in an environment that is free from all forms of misconduct, which includes maltreatment and other prohibited behaviours (all as defined within this Policy). In support of Skate Canada's vision and core values, this Misconduct Reporting and Resolution Policy ("Policy") has been established to ensure that we are providing the safest possible environment for everyone in the skating community. This Policy promotes awareness, fairness, equity, transparency, prevention and the appropriate timely response and resolution of reported violations to this Policy.

Critical to creating and maintaining a safe environment is the establishment of preventative measures and having accessible reporting and resolution mechanisms in place to provide fair and equitable treatment of all components of Skate Canada's National Safe Sport Program. This includes the fair and impartial management of complaints of misconduct.

This Policy outlines the available reporting and resolution mechanisms related to complaints of alleged, suspected, or actual misconduct from, between and/or regarding an individual to whom this Policy applies (as set out below in the Policy Scope / Applicability section). This Policy is intended to encourage and enable individuals to raise concerns so that an inappropriate action, behaviour and/or conduct can be addressed and/or corrected. It is important to note that in order to ensure independence with respect to complaints related to misconduct, reporting and resolution, as required, is through a confidential independent third-party external authority as designated and retained by Skate Canada to receive and resolve reports, which provides for anonymity should the reporting individual prefer it.

Background / Rationale

This Policy is designed to support the Skate Canada National Safe Sport Program and serves as a control to help safeguard the environment, welfare, and rights of everyone involved with Skate Canada. The safety and protection of everyone in our skating community from misconduct is of paramount importance. The focus of this Policy is on the collective roles, responsibilities, and practices of everyone involved in the skating community, including the critical role of Skate Canada, clubs, skating schools, and sections, to work together in partnership to ensure an optimal operating environment where the safety of our skaters is our priority at all times. Specifically, it is imperative that each of our respective organizations in the skating community work to prevent actions and situations that would give rise to misconduct, and that there is a timely and appropriate response to complaints of suspected or actual misconduct. It is in the interest of everyone involved with Skate Canada that such concerns be reported in good faith so that they can be properly addressed and corrected.

Through this Policy, Skate Canada endorses and adopts the Universal Code of Conduct to Prevent and Address Maltreatment in Sport (UCCMS). The UCCMS is the core document, first published in 2019, that sets harmonized rules to advance a respectful sport culture that delivers quality, inclusive, accessible, welcoming, and safe sport experiences. Any changes in the UCCMS are automatically adopted by Skate Canada as applicable.

In addition, integral to Safe Sport is the adoption of industry standards, rules, etc., and support services provided by or in partnership with Skate Canada, together with government and industry. Examples include the Government of Canada/Sports Canada Ethics in Sport, the CCES Canadian Safe Sport Program (CSSP) and the CSSP Rules, the Canadian Sport Policy, Sport Canada policies, the Coaching Association Code of Ethics, the COC Policy on the Management of Safe Sport Complaints, the ISU Athlete Safeguarding Policy, and the ISU Code of Ethics.

In September 2020, Skate Canada created the Skate-Safe program for Safe Sport available to all individuals which serves as an independent safe sport mechanism to implement this Policy, which includes the UCCMS, and exists independently of the Skate Canada Safe Sport Program. Through the Skate-Safe program an independent external third-party Case Manager was retained as an external authority with responsibility for the end-to-end management of all reports of alleged misconduct received from individuals through the Skate-Safe program, including the independent review of the complaint of misconduct, the investigation (as appropriate) and resolution process, and final decision and disciplinary action.

In July 2021, the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) received the mandate from the Government of Canada to establish an independent safe sport mechanism to implement the UCCMS at the national level for federally funded sports organizations. This led to the creation of the Abuse-Free Sport program by the SDRCC in June 2022 and the creation of the Office of the Sports Integrity Commissioner (OSIC) with responsibility for administering the UCCMS and exists as an independent division of the SDRCC's Abuse-Free Sport program.

In May 2024, the Canadian Centre of Ethics in Sport (CCES) received the mandate from the Government of Canada to administer the UCCMS safe sport mechanism at the national level for federally funded sports organizations. The CCES worked closely with the SDRCC, who manages the Office of the Sports Integrity Commissioner (OSIC) and the Abuse-Free Sport Program together with the Director of Sanctions and Outcomes (DSO), on a plan to mitigate any interruption in services to sport organizations and athletes (especially victims and survivors of maltreatment) with the current programs through the OSIC and Abuse-Free Sport Program throughout this transfer process to the CCES Canadian Safe Sport Program (CSSP). In addition, CCES initiated an adoption process with NSOs for the onboarding and implementation of the rules and associated requirements for the new CCES CSSP, including the CSSP Rules. Note: Cases received up to January 31, 2025 will continue to be managed (including decisions and sanctions/disciplinary measures as may be applicable) by the OSIC and the DSO through to August 1, 2025. Cases/reports received by OSIC between February 1, 2025 and March 31, 2025, will be referred to the appropriate independent third party, including the CCES and/or the Skate-Safe Case Manager as applicable.

Effective April 1, 2025 (Effective Date), as an NSO, Skate Canada endorsed and adopted the new CSSP and the CSSP Rules implemented and administered by the CCES and retained the services of the CCES as an independent third-party external authority for the implementation, administration, and enforcement of the UCCMS for program signatories only. Subject to this Policy, complaints or reports of violations of the UCCMS (prohibited behaviours including maltreatment, as defined under the UCCMS) by a program signatory only occurring after the Effective Date and falling within the jurisdiction of the UCCMS shall be governed by the policies and procedures of the CCES Canadian Safe Sport Program (CSSP), including but not limited to the CSSP Rules.

IMPORTANT NOTE: All individuals, except program signatories, will continue reporting complaints of misconduct through the Case Manager under the Skate-Safe program.

It may be the case that a particular act or communication does not meet the threshold of any of the types of maltreatment but is an act or communication that is nonetheless viewed as inappropriate in the circumstances. The assessment of the behaviour should consider whether the behaviour would raise concern in the mind of a reasonable observer, what objective appears to be guiding the interaction, and whose needs are being met. Even if the act in question does not, on its own, objectively cause harm to another person, a boundary transgression is nonetheless an act that should be corrected in order to ensure the safety and security of all individuals involved in sport, recognizing that boundary transgressions are often part of the grooming process bullying (and/or abusive behaviour) <intimidation (ou comportement abusif)> : means an unwanted physical, verbal, or psychological act, aggressive behaviour, or other objectional conduct (in person and/or online/cyberbullying) that is typically repeated over time (but may be a single serious incident) by a person, deliberately or subconsciously, that is intended to ridicule, belittle, alienate, or humiliate another person irrespective of the persons' hierarchical position with relation to the other person

Discrimination does not require an intention to cause harm.

Behaviour, policies, and/or practices specifically of benefit for certain individuals will not be considered discrimination. Discrimination does not include behaviour, policies, and/or practices rationally connected to legitimate sport objectives with the honest and good faith belief that they are reasonably necessary to accomplish the relevant objectives, provided that accommodation of the needs of a person affected would impose undue hardship on the individual that would have to accommodate those needs, considering health, safety, cost, and legitimate sport objectives.

division <division> : means a department dealing with specific areas of activity, expertise and/or responsibility grooming <conditionnement> : as defined in the UCCMS, means the deliberate conduct by an individual comprised of one or several acts that, viewed objectively, either make it easier to engage in sexual maltreatment or reduce the chance that sexual maltreatment will be reported. Grooming is conduct that may precede other behaviours defined as sexual maltreatment or is carried out in conjunction with other forms of sexual maltreatment. Repeated boundary transgressions by an individual toward a minor may also be deemed to be grooming, even in the absence of deliberate intention to facilitate a sexual relationship. In assessing whether grooming has occurred, the existence of a power imbalance should be taken into account. The grooming process is often gradual and involves building trust and comfort with a person, and sometimes also with protective adults and peers around the person. It may begin with subtle behaviours that may not appear to be inappropriate but that can serve to sexualize a relationship, reduce sexual inhibitions, or normalize inappropriate behaviour. It may include the testing of boundaries (e.g., seemingly accidental touching) that gradually escalates to sexual maltreatment (e.g., sexualized touching). This Policy applies to all complaints of alleged, actual or suspected act, conduct and/or behaviour of misconduct, as defined within this Policy. All individuals are responsible for knowing what constitutes misconduct. In addition, all individuals should recognize that the categories of misconduct are not mutually exclusive, nor are the examples provided an exhaustive list.

This Policy applies whether the misconduct is a pattern or a single incident. Misconduct can take place through any form or means of communication (e.g., electronic communication (for example, telephony, online, social media), verbal, written, visual or through a third-party), physical means, psychological means, including but not limited to the various behaviours, acts and conduct as defined in this Policy.

This Policy applies with retroactive effect, and applies to reports from, between or regarding past and current individuals (including retired from and/or no longer active with Skate Canada) , provided the individual was/is an individual as defined within this Policy, and provided the individual against whom the complaint is made, was/is an individual as defined within this Policy at the time when the alleged act, conduct, or behaviour occurred.

This Policy applies to any act, conduct, behaviour, and/or matter that may arise during the course of Skate Canada's business, activities, environment (including the online or virtual environment), and events including without limitation: while performing, attending, etc. at Skate Canada competitions, practices, and training camps; travel associated with Skate Canada activities, events, competitions, functions, etc.; communications by telephone or electronically; and any meetings with Skate Canada, regardless of whether these activities, business, environment, and events etc. occur within domestic Canada or internationally.

This Policy does not prevent temporary and/or immediate disciplinary action, including the imposition of a sanction or membership revocation from being applied as reasonably required by Skate Canada. Depending on the nature of the information received from a professional disciplinary external source of competent authority (including, but not limited to, law enforcement agencies, Children's Aid Society, and other professional disciplinary organizations) or at the recommendation of the external authority as designated by Skate Canada, if an individual's action, conduct and/or behaviour is of a serious nature, immediate disciplinary action may be taken, as applicable and appropriate, including and up to immediate suspension or expulsion of membership or status as a registrant with Skate Canada or permanent removal as an inductee to the Skate Canada Hall of Fame (as applicable).

Any infractions or complaints occurring at a Skate Canada endorsed competition and/or event by an organization other than Skate Canada will be dealt with by the procedures and processes specific to that competition and/or event (e.g., ISU, Olympics, etc.). This Policy establishes the Misconduct Reporting and Resolution Procedure (“Procedure”), which is designed to outline the procedures related to reports and complaints of alleged, suspected, or actual misconduct received by the Case Manager through the Skate-Safe process and ensure an appropriate and timely resolution of these reports through this independent external reporting and resolution process.

Such appointment is not appealable. The Case Manager for Skate-Safe or the CCES for the Canadian Safe Sport Program (CSSP), as applicable, may accept any complaint at their sole discretion.

For all individuals, except the designated CCES CSSP program signatories, concerns and/or violations of this Policy are to be reported to a Case Manager through our independent Skate-Safe program on a confidential basis as follows:

For complaints made through the Case Manager of the Skate-Safe program, the Case Manager will be responsible for receiving and addressing the complaint accordingly and maintaining oversight at all stages of the process to ensure an independent review, investigation (as appropriate) and timely resolution.

If Skate Canada as part of Safe Sport or the Case Manager for the Skate-Safe program receives a complaint that should have been reported to the CCES through the Canadian Safe Sport Program process, the report will be redirected to the CCES to manage in accordance with their policies and procedures (including the CSSP Rules) and the individual(s) that made the complaint will be notified of such action.

Any sanction(s) imposed will take effect immediately, notwithstanding an appeal to the Board.

The sanctions, penalties, and/or disciplinary measures imposed will be proportionate to, and reflective of, the nature and severity of the violation, and may involve one or more of a series of disciplinary measures, including but not limited to suspension or expulsion from activities, programs, events, competitions, membership, and / or status as a registrant in Skate Canada, on such terms and conditions, if any, are deemed appropriate or necessary and in accordance with Skate Canada policies, procedures, and Bylaws as applicable. The Board will review the written Notice of Appeal and, at its sole discretion, determine if there are sufficient grounds for appeal. Once a complaint of misconduct has been reported and until a decision is released, to protect the interests of all parties, no individual (including all parties involved in the complaint as parties, NSO, potential and/or actual witnesses) is permitted to disclose either the existence of a complaint or confidential information or records that form part of the investigation of the complaint to any individual outside of the complaint except as strictly required for the purposes of investigating, obtaining legal advice, taking corrective action with respect to the complaint, as required by the insurance provider of Skate Canada for report incidents that are likely to give rise to a claim, or as otherwise compelled by law.

The Case Manager must report incidents that are likely to give rise to a claim to its insurance provider at the time the Case Manager is made aware of the incident. Moreover, there may be cases in which confidentiality is not feasible, examples include but are not limited to, where there is a legal duty to report, where it may impede the investigation, to support an investigation of misconduct, where an immediate temporary suspension of membership or status as a registrant is required pending the outcome of the investigation and disciplinary process and/or final decision on the outcome of the investigation, to enforce a sanction, or as noted if required by law. In accordance with applicable laws, all instances of a misconduct incident shall be regarded as confidential, and personal information (including name, date of birth, address) will not be disclosed, except in limited circumstances. Any breach of the confidentiality requirements as outlined herein will be treated as a serious offence. The individual who breached the confidentiality requirements may be subject to disciplinary action, at the sole discretion of Skate Canada.

Despite any duty of confidentiality, Skate Canada and/or the Case Manager (as applicable) are legally obligated to contact a child's parents or legal guardian and/or relevant law enforcement officials, and/or provincial/territorial social service ministries or departments, and/or child welfare authorities (e.g., children's aid society or child and family services agencies) in certain circumstances (where there is a legal duty to report potential (actual or suspected) abuse and neglect of a minor under Canadian child welfare laws). The Case Manager shall not be responsible for fulfilling the aforementioned obligation if the individual filing the report confirms in writing that they have already reported to any such authorities.

The Case Manager may disclose non-distinguishing information of individual cases for the purpose of consultation, or reporting. In these circumstances, the Case Manager will only share the minimum information required.
